“To create, design and express a oneness of spirit, a connection to land & people to Heal.
The enlightened beauty of love & Art can bloom from within one’s heart, extending & growing, touching & healing everything it comes into contact with”

“Wiyana (Woman) Spirit” is a company created by Aboriginal Artist, Susan Betts, who has been painting and designing for many years.

Susan Cultural ties are with the “Wirangu, Mirning & Kokatha” people of the Far-West Coast of South Australia.

With her Aboriginal Cultural heritage background, Susan blends old & new, a connection to land & people that instils a spirit to heal.

Within “Wiyana Spirit Creative” company, Susan, paints & designs images which express her connection to her “Culture, Country, Spirit”

She also does cultural painting workshops with an intention to teach all about Aboriginal art / culture, design, healing colours painted from the heart.

Susan believes everyone can express enlighten love and light from their heart with Art, which then can be passed on.

Some of Susan’s artwork includes paintings, prints, portraits and landscapes. She has done many workshops in schools and various groups.

Susan also loves photography in which she expresses her connection to Country.

She would also loves to express her poems and inspirations within her artwork.
